Juniors Issue Next Paper

The next issue of this paper will be made up wholly by the Junior Class, and will be known as the Junior issue.

William Tingley and Harold Owen will direct the publication. The other members of the staff are:

Students Hear of Mountain Life

Wednesday, B. H. Schockel, head of the Geology and Geography Department at Normal, spoke to the school. He described the life of the mountaineers of east Kentucky and Tennessee. The sketches he read were interesting and gave the students a much better idea of row. The fast Sullivan squad has arranged to play, however. Saturday night Garfield may play a return game at Sullivan.

Those who have been following the basket-ball game at Garfield will be interested to know that Nash is still eligible and will likely play in both games.

"Fire Fighters"—Frank David and John Comoford.
