

... and show business continues to occupy our attention ...

as the chorus line starts another successful Student Council Variety Show ...

The Stage Crew, Kent Douglas, Ralph Dunkin, and Jim Huff, are always present in our shows to provide necessary technical assistance.

... And then the Juniors have their chance to develop "foot-light fever" as they present a song and dance extravaganza extraordinary in their revue, "Susie and the U. S. Male." Written by Mrs. Williams and staged under the direction of Mrs. Berglund who went all out to provide intricate and clever dance routines, the show was a decided success. (Pictures of some of the individual numbers appear on the opposite page.)

We have fun and get better acquainted at Big and Little Sister Parties at the beginning of each semester . . .

At Halloween time, Big and Little Sisters gather in costume to have an evening of fun and games . . .

Winners are chosen for the prettiest, ugliest, and most unusual costumes. This proved a difficult chore for the judges!

The members of the Dean's Cabinet, sponsors of the Big and Little Sister project, stage a style (?) show as a part of the entertainment. "Unusual costumes" are the fashion note.

Constructing a float for the Christmas parade gives us new experiences, and we get a special thrill as "Stocking Up for Christmas" wins us first prize for the entire parade . . .
