Published continuously since the year of 1913, with the exception of one year during depression times, the Benedictus, school annual gives the story in pictures of the school year. Students learn to plan photographs, to plan layout, to mount pictures, to write copy, and to sell advertising and subscriptions in order to publish the book.

Deborah (Debbie) Hulman, Editor, (right), Don Johnson, Assistant Editor, (center), and Miss Becherer, Faculty Sponsor, (left), discuss picture composition.

Both vocal and instrumental music come in for their share of interest to help us develop our talents . . .

. . . as we participate as members of the Dance Band, playing for assemblies, plays, and revues.

. . . as members of the string orchestra.

. . . as the Triple Trio, singing for special occasions.
