

We sing in the . . .

CHOIR

. . . under the direction of Mr. Billy H. Diekhoff.

This year, the Choir during the first year under Mr. Diekhoff, presented programs for the Thanksgiving and Easter assemblies, for the Tulip Trek. They sang for various programs all over town, and staged a special "Twas the Night Before Christmas" which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone. In addition, the Choir participated in the All-State Choral Festival at Indianapolis, and at the District Choral Festival and the City Music Festival.

Each year, in June, we go "formal" in a big way . . .

JUNIOR PROM

. . . and we proudly present . . .

QUEEN OF THE 1958 JUNIOR PROM

Miss Susan Rose Armstrong

The committee responsible for the arrangements for the prom banquet and dance pose with their escorts.

ATTENDANTS TO THE QUEEN

Miss Judith Rassie
Miss Georgia Thomson
Miss Linda Garver
Miss Judith Jerrels

... We have fun at informal affairs, too, as each year TWIRP (meaning The Woman Is Requested to Pay) WEEK provides fun for all of us . . .

Twirp King and His Attendants are crowned by their "escorts" at the Twirp Twirl

King	Jim Pridemore, '59
Attendants	Chet Sanders, '62
	Butch Hooker, '61
	Lynn Youngblood, '59
	Jerry Adams, '60

"Escorts" provide corsages with a humorous twist for their dates. Pictured are some of the prize-winning creations, as records, money, vegetables, candy, and what-not substitute for the usual "orchids."

Christmas comes in for its share of attention in the way of special activities . . .

. . . as the Garfield Players enact the Nativity Scene for a special program . . .

. . . and The Choir members don pajamas and gather around the Christmas tree to sing the familiar and beloved "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

... A Christmas Tree, too, figures in our Christmas plans ...

as the seniors choose just the right tree to saw down ...

... drag it across the ice ...

... hoist it on to a truck to bring to school for a decorating party on Sunday afternoon.
