

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

One of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a student at Wiley is to be elected to the National Honor Society. Only those students in the upper third of the January and June graduating classes are eligible for the honor. The faculty elects the students on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership and dependability.

MEMBERS

Mary Jac Curry
Ernest Davidson
Hannah Eller
Marcia Goodman
Alan Grinnell
Ruth Hiatt
Martha McMillan
Joseph Minnis
Jerry Purcell
Don Rain
Miriam Schloss
David Sharpe
Kirby Smith
Ed Whalen

Left to right:

Row 1: Mary Youman, Nancy McAninch, Linda Melvin, Mary Alice King, Patricia Lady, Colleen Miller, Katie Conley, Kay Coy, Sara Jo Maratta, Margie Lewis, Nancy Hughes, Joretta Robertson, Phyllis McCoskey.

Row 2: Don Martin, David Hay, Ed Whalen, Barbara Bauer, Vivian McCullough, Beverly Hubbs, Carolyn Miller, Carol Habermeier, Judi Horton, Sally McMillan, Pat Armstrong, Sondra Crawford, David Culp, Mickey Thomas, Don Gaither.

Row 3: Phil Farmer, Dick Cooper, Jerry Isenburg, Alan D. Grinnell, John Spaulding, Dick Donovan, Franklin Mayfield, Mike Frandzel, Paul Schwartz, Charles Secrest, Jerry Reynolds.

Literary honors were received by students for prize-winning contest essays and poetry accepted for publication in the National Anthology of High School Poetry.

HONORS

Linda Bohannon, left, was the recipient of the D.A.R. award and Ernest Davidson received the American Legion award. These awards are given annually to an outstanding girl and boy on the basis of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. Jerry Purcell was named as runner-up for the American Legion Award.

Left to right:

Row 1: Alan D. Grinnell, William Malone, Melanie Fesler, Sondra Crawford, Sharon Jo Martin, Rita Green, Kirby D. Smith.
 Row 2: Paul Schwartz, Mitchell Thomas, Tom Jones, David Hay, Ed Coffin, Dick Hahn, Don Rain, Jerry Isenburg.

DEBATE AND DRAMA HONORS

Wiley students won many honors throughout the year in debate and drama meets. In drama, Sondra Crawford placed first in humorous declamation at Garfield. Rita Greene was presented a drama award and David Hay won a first in original oratory at Eminence. Dick Hahn placed second in oratorical declamation in the State N.F.L. and Sharon Jo Martin won third place in N. F. L. extemp. Ed Coffin was outstanding in original oratory and Paul Schwartz won a second in exempt at Broad Ripple. Melanie Fesler placed first in N. F. L. radio. Kirby Smith won the district and placed third in the state in the American Legion oratorical contest.

In debate, Tom Jones was selected to go to the Nationals of Student Congress in Pennsylvania, while William Malone and Alan Grinnell were chosen to go in debate. Mitchell Thomas and Don Rain won firsts in debate at South Bend and Jerry Isenburg won a first in debate at Peru.

THE BRONZE TURKEY

The bronze turkey, victory trophy for the annual Wiley-Garfield football game, comes "home to roost." The bird is being presented to Miss Diana Creighton, 1953 football queen, by Mr. Stanley Stohr and Mr. Lenhardt Bauer of the Indiana University Alumni Club of Terre Haute.

SPECIAL AWARDS

WRITER'S AWARD

For first place award in news writing, William Malone received a scholarship to Indiana State Teachers' College during the Wabash Valley Press Conference held October, 1953.

PRESS CONFERENCE AWARD

Barbara Bauer and Ed Whalen, co-editors of the 1954 Wileyan, accepted from Miss Shirley Brewer a trophy awarded to the 1953 Wileyan during the Wabash Valley Press Conference.