OPEN TO CURRENT LIBRARY EMPLOYEES AND EXTERNAL CANDIDATES
APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED THROUGH JUNE 11, 2017
VIGO COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Posting Date: April 27, 2017

DIRECTOR OF TECHNOLOGY AND SPECIAL SERVICES: The Vigo County Public Library currently has a full-time salaried exempt position available at the Main Library in Administration for the position of Director of Technology and Special Services.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: The Director of Technology and Special Services is part of the executive Administrative team and leads a library division comprised of the Systems, Tech Team, Technical Services, and Special Collections departments. This position is responsible for the division's long-range planning, overall operation, and ongoing goal-based assessment in support of the library's strategic plan, exemplifying innovative and customer-focused initiatives and services development. As part of the executive Administrative team, the Director of Technology and Special Services provides system-wide leadership, and in conjunction with other division directors, acts on behalf of the Executive Director in the Executive Director's absence.

JOB FUNCTIONS:

Essential Functions Performed Daily:

- Oversee and coordinate work of departments to ensure efficient and effective operations meeting VCPL current and future technology infrastructure needs and delivery of customer-focused technology and information services.
- In conjunction with department managers, develop programs, services, technologies, and initiatives that support and enhance library goals and objectives.
- Provide consultation, leadership, and guidance to department managers for development of policies, procedures, best practices, professional management protocols, and project management skills.
- Encourage creativity, provide opportunities for staff development of innovative problem-solving strategies, and facilitate interdepartmental and/or team-based projects for successful execution of new or improved services or processes.
- Stay abreast of new trends and innovations in technology infrastructure and services. Consult with division managers to analyze, evaluate, and provide recommendations for application of technology solutions for provision of new or enhancement of existing delivery of services or resources.
- Provide leadership in library-wide planning, policy making, evaluation of services, and professional development.
- Interpret library policies and procedures to library staff and the public.
- Maintain awareness of and respond to customer service issues and concerns by modeling behavior that encourages equitable and respectful treatment for all and creates a service oriented culture through innovative solutions.
- Maintain confidentiality in all staff and customer interactions.
- Assist the Executive Director with administrative day-to-day library operations.

Essential Functions Performed Periodically:

- In conjunction with fellow division directors, act on behalf of the Executive Director in the Executive Director's absence.
- Make recommendations to the Executive Director in areas such as resource allocation, budget management, strategic planning, and personnel matters.

- Collaborate with executive Administrative team and department managers to define and develop overall strategic plans, goals, and objectives relevant to the needs of the community and providing opportunities for growth and development.
- Oversee preparation of the annual budget for departments in collaboration with managers and the Executive Director; submit orders and/or approval for department purchases; provide accountability for expenditures of budgeted funds and designated grant funds.
- In collaboration with department managers and Administration, pursue grants and perform grant writing for funding opportunities that support the goals and objectives of the VCPL.
- Participate with the Business Office Manager in the planning and execution of the E-Rate funding processes.
- Participate in community programs and events that support and strengthen VCPL's commitment to generating change and transforming lives in the community:
- Represent VCPL at events such as Family Learning Day Downtown, Altrusa Chili Cook-Off, DTH Heritage Ambassador Awards, Terre Haute Street Fair, Health/Senior Fairs, Juneteenth, Health Fair, United Way, TableScapes, etc.
- Form partnerships with service clubs and community organizations to develop new and innovative library services that anticipate and meet community needs.
- Represent the VCPL with promotional appearances on local television and radio stations for programs, events, and services.
- Attend departments meetings periodically to track progress towards department goals.
- Attend and participate in executive Administrative Team meetings weekly to provide department/project updates and review/discuss policies/procedures relevant to overall library operations.
- Work with department managers and HR to develop and maintain relevant and accurate job descriptions, operating policies, and procedures.
- Oversee and approve department manager's work schedules, bi-weekly timecards, and leave requests.
- Conduct Performance Appraisals with department managers annually, or intermittently as needed, for evaluation and development of performance, professional development, or operational goal-based benchmarks.
- In conjunction with HR, participates in candidate application review, interview, and selection process for departments.
- Assist department managers with employee performance issues, conflict resolution, improvement plans, and disciplinary measures; consult with Executive Director and HR as needed.

Additional Functions Performed Periodically:

- Prepare and present reports for the VCPL Board of Trustees periodically or as needed.
- Stay abreast of emerging trends in the public library profession and assess professional development needs.
- Attend continuing education workshops, conferences, and seminars for professional development and as required to continue Indiana Librarian Certification.
- Perform other duties as assigned.
